The Greater St. Louis Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame was founded in 1973 to honor those players, coaches, umpires and contributors who have helped amateur baseball flourish in the Gateway City. The STL ABHOF celebrates the rich history of St. Louis amateur baseball by recognizing those individuals who have contributed on the field as an outstanding player, coach or umpire or off the field as an organizer or contributor. The STL ABHOF is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to promoting and recognizing individuals who have excelled in St. Louis amateur baseball during their career. Over 800 individuals have been honored since the first class of inductees in 1974.

Along with honoring past players, coaches, umpires and contributors, the STL ABHOF expanded recognition to an even wider playing field in 1995 when the Rising Star Award was born. This award honors outstanding high school baseball players and their coaches for outstanding play.

In 2001, the STL ABHOF created the Bob Broeg Award to honor a high school baseball coach who excels as a teacher, coach and mentor for their respective high school team.

The Bob Burnes Lifetime Achievement Award, established in 2004, honors a player from the Greater St. Louis Area who has achieved success at the professional level.

Lastly, in 2012 the STL ABHOF created the Jack Buck Media Award, which is presented to a distinguished member of the St. Louis media who has promoted, reported, broadcast, provided analysis or play-by-play about the game of baseball in a professional manner during their career.

ABHOF ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

To be eligible for induction, candidates must have the following minimum qualifications for consideration:

- Have reached the age of 40
- Have participated in amateur baseball for at least eight (8) seasons after high school. Each college season and summer season counts individually. Minor league playing time will be accepted. Appearances in the major leagues shall be limited to 120 or fewer AB's and five (5) or fewer pitching appearances.
- Have participated for at least one (1) year in the Greater St. Louis area.

All candidates must complete an application and submit it to the board no later than October 1 annually. For applications go to: www.stlabhof.org or contact: stlabhof@aol.com.

2017 MASTER OF CEREMONIES

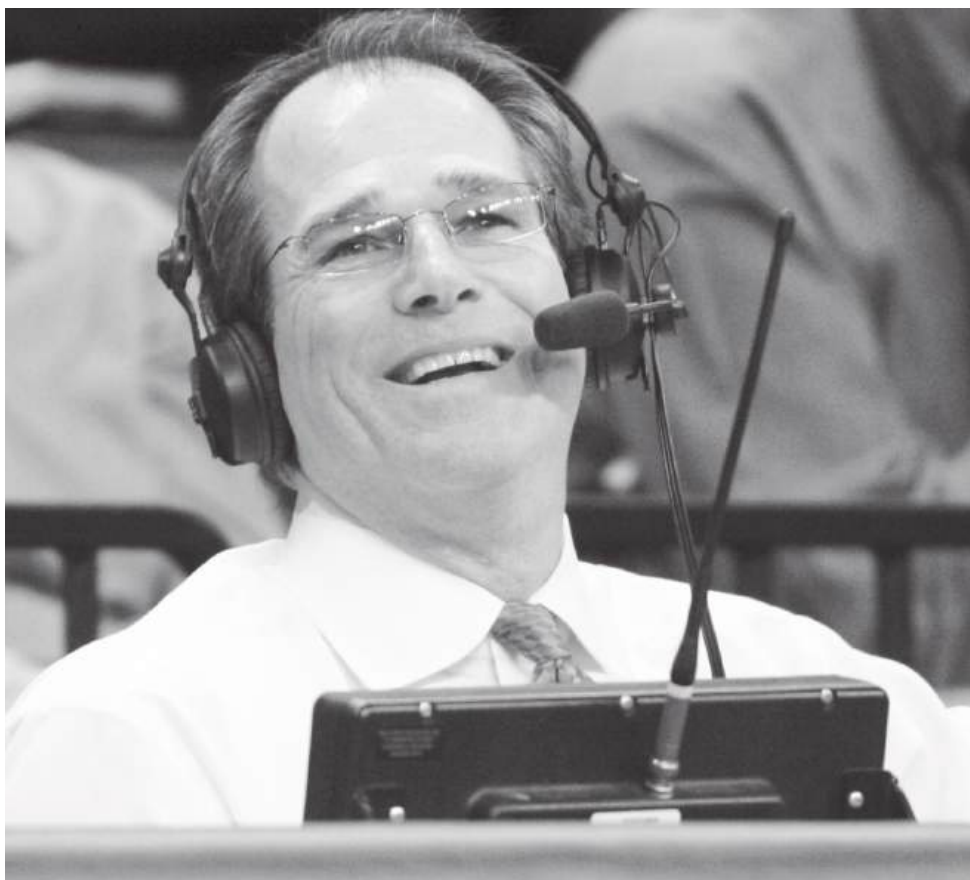

BOB RAMSEY

Bob Ramsey, a two-time local Emmy award winner and a five-time Missouri Sportscaster of the Year Award winner, is our emcee tonight at the 44th St. Louis Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame Dinner.

The St. Louis University Hall of Famer started his long career broadcasting Louisiana Tech basketball. He gave Tech player Karl Malone, a future NBA star, his nickname "The Mailman."

Ramsey has spent the last 30 years years calling St. Louis University Billikens basketball. He is the longest tenured play-by-play man in the history of St. Louis University.

Ramsey also broadcast Cardinal baseball on Fox Sports Midwest and on radio.

RISING STAR AWARD

The Rising Star Award was created by the Greater St. Louis Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame in 1995 and is sponsored by ABHOF Director Jerry Mueller (Jerry Mueller Investments), Jim Sprick & Jim Sill (Long John Silver's & A&W Restaurants), Robert Lesslie, Jr. (Lesslie Consulting, Inc.), Lee Thomas (Special Assistant to the General Manager of the Baltimore Orioles) & Bill Suntrup (Suntrup Automotive Family). Its purpose is to provide area high school baseball players with a goal to be the best both on the field and in the classroom.

This award honors the "best of the best" in St. Louis area high school baseball. Area high school coaches nominated the players who were voted on by a selection committee consisting of Hall of Fame board members and local media. Selection was based upon a player's performance both on the field and in the classroom. This year's finalists for the Rising Star Award are:

Kyle Grantham	Francis Howell High School Coach: Tony Perkins
Harry Hegeman	MICDS Coach: Tim Canavan
Erik Kaiser	Waterloo High School Coach: Mark Vogel
Luke Vallandingham	Belleville West High School Coach: Todd Baltz
Dennis Yingling	Lindbergh High School Coach: Darin Scott

Congratulations to 2016 Rising Star: Ryan Perkins ~ Francis Howell High School Coach Tony Perkins

THE BOB BROEG AWARD,
*created by the Greater St. Louis Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame and sponsored by Bob Hardcastle's Delta Insurance Investment Services, is presented to a high school baseball coach who exemplifies excellence in the teaching and coaching of the game of baseball.
 Congratulations 2017 Recipient:*

STEVE NICOLLERAT

Steve Nicollerat, who has coached the St. Louis University Junior Billikens for the past 38 years, is the 2017 winner of the Bob Broeg Award as the top high school coach.

Nicollerat has led the Junior Bills to 29 District Championships, 19 Final Eight appearances and three trips to the Final Four, has a career record of 605 wins and 253 losses. Under Nicollerat, St. Louis U. High has either been Conference Champion or Co-Champion seven times. The Junior Billikens have been consistently ranked in the Top 10 by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Nicollerat was inducted into the Greater St. Louis Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame in 2015 and the Missouri High School Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in 2011. He was also recognized in 2010 by the Greater St. Louis Umpires Association when he was presented the Hal Whitaker Award.

He is also very active in the community and has conducted camps and clinics for nearly 30 years. He operates the "Coach Baseball Right" and "Baseball From The Ground Up" websites. Nicollerat also is a instructor at the St. Louis Sports Commission Coach It Right Baseball Clinic and annually organizes the Challenger Baseball Event.

BOB BURNES LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Sponsored by Bob Hardcastle's Delta Insurance Investment Services, the Bob Burnes Lifetime Achievement award honors a St. Louis area resident who made it to some level of professional baseball.

Congratulations 2017 Recipient:

CLIFF POLITTE

Vianney High School graduate Cliff Politte, who spent six years in the Major Leagues and won a World Series ring as a member of the Chicago White Sox pitching staff, is the 2017 winner of the Bob Burnes Award.

Politte, who pitched at Jefferson College, was selected in the 54th round of the amateur draft in 1996 by the Cardinals and was the starter in the second game of the 1998 season. The right hander had a record of 2-3 with the Cards before being sent back to Memphis in May.

He was traded to Philadelphia in 1998 and spent four seasons with the Phillies and posted a record of 9-6 over four seasons working out of the bullpen.

Politte was traded to the Toronto Blue Jays in 2002 and he established himself in 2003 by earning 12 saves. The White Sox signed him as a free agent in 2004 and Politte enjoyed the best season of his career in 2005 with a record of 7-1 and a 2.00 earned run average. He helped the White Sox sweep the Houston Astros in the 2005 World Series.

JACK BUCK MEDIA AWARD

The Jack Buck Media award, sponsored by ABHOF Director Jerry Mueller (Jerry Mueller Investments), Jim Sprick & Jim Sill (Long John Silver's & A&W Restaurants); Robert Lesslie, Jr. (Lesslie Consulting, Inc.), Lee Thomas (Special Assistant to the General Manager of the Baltimore Orioles) & Bill Suntrup (Suntrup Automotive Family) is presented to a distinguished member of the St. Louis media who has promoted, reported, broadcast, provided analysis or play-by-play about the game of baseball in a professional manner over a period of time.

Congratulations 2017 recipient:

FRANK CUSUMANO

Seventeen time Emmy Award winning sportscaster Frank Cusumano is the 2017 winner of the Jack Buck Media Award.

Cusumano has spent 23 years at KSDK Channel 5 and was recently named Sports Director. He is best known for his terrific talent of storytelling and excellent sports coverage.

He also has excelled on radio for 22 years with his show The Pressbox at various stations in St. Louis and is now at CBS Sports Radio 920AM.

Cusumano was a star basketball player at De Smet High School and was a member of the basketball team that won 63 straight games in the late 1970s. He later played at the University of Missouri-St. Louis and started his TV career in Lexington, Kentucky in 1991.

GUEST SPEAKER & 2017 INDUCTEE

RICH RIEKER

St. Louisan Rich Rieker, the man behind home plate when Cardinal first baseman Mark McGwire hit his 69th and 70th home runs of the season in 1998, is a member of the 2017 Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame and the guest speaker at tonight's annual dinner.

Rieker joined the National League staff in 1996 and quickly established himself as one of the top young umpires in all of baseball. He worked the 1998 All-Star Game and had two trips to the post season working the Division Series in 1999 and 2000. A herniated disc in his neck forced him off the field and into the front office of Major League Baseball in 2002 as an Umpire Supervisor.

Rieker is now the Director of Umpire Development in Major League Baseball's Umpiring Department.

2017 CLASS OF INDUCTEES

BRANNON "BOO" CHAMPAGNE – A strong right-handed pitcher, Champagne played in the Kansas City Royals farm system in 1986 and 1987. In 1986, he pitched for the Eugene Emeralds in the Northwest League. In 1987, he was a pitcher for the Fort Myers Royals in the Florida State League. In 1983, he was invited to try out for the St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds. Champagne pitched for St. Charles High from 1980-'83. He was named All-State, All-District, and All-Conference. He led his team to several conference and district championships. He was team captain and MVP of the 1983 Quarter-Final team. That year, he was named the Senior Male Athlete at St. Charles High and he was also a Post-Dispatch Scholar-Athlete. He pitched a no-hitter when he was in high school. From 1981 to 1983, Champagne was an all-star pitcher for the St. Charles American Legion team. He received the District 10 Top Pitcher Award in 1981, and the District 10 MVP Award in 1982. In 1983, he led his team to a second place finish at the Missouri American Legion State Tournament. Champagne received a full baseball scholarship to the University of Illinois. He pitched for the Fighting Illini from 1983 - '87. He was a starting pitcher when he was a freshman. In 1985, the Fighting Illini won the Big 10 Championship, and he was the starting pitcher in the title game against Michigan. He hurled a no-hitter against Bradley University in 1985. Champagne was honored twice as a scholar-athlete at the University of Illinois. From 1991 to 1999, he pitched in the Eastern Missouri Baseball Association for the C&H American Legion team and Old Monroe. He was on six EMBA championship teams. He was selected to many EMBA all-star teams. He received MVP honors in 1993. Champagne pitched for the St. Louis Union Printers and the Waterloo Buds. In the early 1990s, he was a batting practice pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals. Champagne was also an outstanding football and basketball player. He was a highly successful baseball coach for over 20 years.

KEITH CHAMPION – A catcher from Granite City, Illinois, he began his baseball career playing for the Granite City Park District Leagues. Keith continued to play at Granite City South High School and American Legion Post #113, playing for his father, newly inducted Conrad "Babe" Champion.

He later attended Southwest Missouri State/Missouri State University and played for 4 years becoming All-Conference and All-Region. During the summers, Keith played for C&H (Terry Kasper) in the newly formed Metro Collegiate League, along with the Edwardsville Civics (Greg Patton).

In 1982, Keith signed with the St. Cardinals and played for 3 years in their minor league system. His coaching/managing career spanned 1985-1991 with St. Louis and 1992-1994 with the San Diego Padres. In 1995, he began his scouting career and was hired as the Advance Scout with the Chicago Cubs and later a Special Assistant to the GM. Through the years, Keith has scouted for the Cubs, Boston Red Sox, Pittsburgh Pirates and currently is Advance Scouting for the San Francisco Giants. He has been part of 2 National League Championships & 3 World Series Championships along the way. In addition, Keith is part of the Team USA Baseball Scouting Committee and United States Olympic Committee.

MATTHEW GIEGLING – A good-hitting catcher, Giegling played in the Cincinnati Reds farm system for the Plant City Reds in 1990, and the Cedar Rapids Reds in 1991 and 1992. Cedar Rapids won the Midwest League championship in 1992. He also played for the Staunton Braves in the Valley Baseball League in Virginia. This league is known as the Gateway to the Majors.

Giegling signed with the Reds in 1990 after graduating from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. That year, he was named All-Conference on the Saluki baseball team which won the Missouri Valley Conference title, advancing to the NCAA regional playoffs. The team narrowly missed the College World Series after losing two one-run games at the NCAA West Regionals held at Stanford University. Giegling was a catcher for the Salukis from 1986 to 1990. He was a scholar-athlete. He was also a scholar-athlete at St. Mary's High School where he was named an All-Conference catcher. He played for St. Mary's from 1983 to 1986, helping the Dragons win a district championship.

In 1984 and 1985, Giegling was an outfielder and pitcher for the Johnny Mac-Fenton American Legion team. Fenton won the District 10 championship in 1984. Giegling was selected to the American Legion all-star team in 1985.

He played semi-pro ball for the Sauget Wizards under coach Neil Fiala.

Giegling was an umpire for the Midwest Umpires Association.

He has coached amateur baseball in St. Louis for the past 18 years.

JERRY KLEESCHULTE – He was a hard-hitting third baseman who played in the Eastern Missouri Baseball Association from 1958 to 1973. He played for Dardenne from 1958 to 1962 and was selected to four EMBA all-star teams. From 1963 to 1973, he was a third baseman for the Cottleville & Harvester Athletic Association, playing on six EMBA all-star teams. Cottleville & Harvester presented him with the Albert Banze Award and also the Ham Hemsath Award.

Kleeschulte was a starter on the Duchesne High School Baseball team during all four years he attended the school. He received league MVP honors in 1959 and 1960. He was named to three Catholic League all-star teams. He played for the St. Charles American Legion team from 1958 to 1960, making the all-star team in 1959.

SLABA Congratulates the 2017 Hall of Fame Inductees

The St. Louis Amateur Baseball Association (SLABA) provides high school players in the metro area with a cost-effective, high-level summer baseball experience. SLABA's founding principles of promoting sportsmanship, fellowship and the development of youth through baseball-related activities year-round are still the basis of the league today.

In the last five years, SLABA has grown to include 16 member organizations on both sides of the river. In 2017, this will include 39 teams competing in the 15U through 18U levels, with league and playoff championships.

SLABA provides maximum exposure to top-notch competition as teams participate in select tournaments across the Midwest. It also hosts an annual showcase so its incoming high school juniors and seniors can be seen by the region's college coaches.

Thousands of SLABA players have played college or professional baseball. Famous alumni include:

- Two-time Cy Young Award winner Max Scherzer;
- 2011 World Series MVP David Freese;
- 2006 National League MVP Ryan Howard;
- Current/ former major leaguers David Phelps, Kyle McClellan, Morgan Burkhardt and Cliff Politte;
- Grammy Award winning, multi-platinum recording artist Cornell Haynes, Jr. (a/k/a Nelly).

Greater STL Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame Locations:

Busch Stadium is home to the main display of our Hall of Fame. Located on the main concourse between home plate and first base near the Founders Wall, the display features amateur baseball memorabilia and a video presentation that showcases the great amateur baseball tradition in the St. Louis Metro Area.

The display is available to Cardinal fans throughout the baseball season.

Two auxiliary displays are located in baseball centers in the St. Louis area.

Mathews-Dickey Boys Club located at 4245 North Kingshighway in St. Louis hosts our second Hall of Fame display accessible to the public during regular business hours.

The St. Louis Baseball and Fastpitch Academy houses our third display in South St. Louis County at 3641 Reavis Barracks Road in Lemay. This display is also open to the public during regular business hours seven days a week.

St. Louis amateur baseball has a rich history. Countless young men have launched outstanding collegiate, semi-professional and professional careers on the amateur fields of St. Louis. Visit our displays and learn more about our national pastime through the outstanding athletes in the Greater St. Louis Area.

Website & Social Media:

Information about Hall of Fame members, activities, history, and Hall of Fame applications may be found on our website at www.stlabhof.org. Like us on Facebook or follow us on Twitter @gstlabhof or e-mail us at stlabhof@aol.com.
